

HELPING HANDS SHELTER RULES AND GUIDELINES

To be eligible for a bed at the Helping Hands Shelter, the client must:

- Identify as a male
- Be at least 18 years' old
- Be physically and mentally able to care for oneself; including getting in and out of bed, showers, toileting, etc. without help.
- Have a valid picture ID*
- Cannot be on the Sex Offender Registry
- Non-reserve and reserve clients must arrive at the shelter by 5:00 PM. A second intake will be available at 8:00 PM for clients who will not have an evening meal or shower service provided. **

*Clients who present with photo identification, but it is expired or not a state ID, have three (3) business days to meet with a case manager. A Homeless Certification Form can be issued after the third (3rd) consecutive night at the shelter. Clients who have no photo ID and who cannot verify their identity in any way are not eligible for a shelter bed.

If a client is working and physically comes to the shelter earlier in the day to complete intake and presents a valid state ID, he may be allowed a work pass the first night of stay, if approved by the Shelter Director. Upon arrival after work, he must have a time card or other official document from the employer showing what time he left his work location.

Case Management

All clients will have case management services available for their use.

Addiction Help

Clients who have issues with addiction can receive assistance with resources and referrals from the case manager.

Client Service Plan

The client must work with a shelter case manager to develop an active service plan to seek appropriate permanent housing. Service plans are developed based on the individual needs of a client's situation.

Non-Reserve Beds

First come first serve beds are available each day. We always strive to provide service to as many clients as possible. Due to space constraints this can be difficult at times.

Residency

- Non-reserve clients wishing to receive an evening meal must be present at the facility between 5:00 PM and 6:00 PM for entrance unless the client has an approved pass.
 - The number of non-reserve beds available each night will be based on open beds at 5:00 PM.
 - Following the initial 5:00 PM intakes, there will be a second round of intakes, if there are still beds available, between 9:00 PM and 10:00 PM.
